

Contributing to the effective management of Amvrakikos Wetlands National Park

12.00PM, Arta, 12th July 2024

Event Agenda

12.00-12.05: Welcoming by University of Ioannina

12.05-12.10: Welcoming by Amvrakikos Alliance

12.10-12.15: Welcoming by NECCA

12.10-12.30: Amvrakikos Gulf: Biodiversity & Threats

Speaker: Ioannis Giovos, iSea

12.30-12.50: Amvrakikos Gulf: Detecting new areas of interest for the protection of the sea turtles

Speaker: Daphne Mavrogiorgos, Archelon

12.50-13.10: The secrets of the swamp: mapping, monitoring and designing conservation measures for the waterbirds of the largest reedbed of Greece

Speaker: Panos Kordopatis, Hellenic Ornithological Society

----- Lunch Break-----

14.00-14.20: Critically endangered Bottlenose Dolphins under troubled waters

Speaker: Joan Gonzalvo, Tethys Research Institute

14.20-14.40: Mapping habitat and hypoxia/anoxia in a semiclosed embayment, Amvrakikos Gulf

Speaker: Geraga Maria & George Papatheodorou, University of Patras, Department of Geology

UNIVERSITY OF PATRAS

BLUE MARINE
FOUNDATION

14.40-15.00: Ecosystem-based fisheries in Amvrakikos Gulf

Speaker: Dimitrios K. Moutopoulos, University of Patras, Fisheries & Aquaculture

15.00-15.20: Activities of the University of Ioannina, Department of Agriculture in Amvrakikos area (infrastructure, research and development)

Speaker: Ioannis Skoufos, University of Ioannina, Department of Agriculture

Paraskevi Beza, University of Ioannina, Department of Agriculture

Christos Koliopanos, University of Ioannina, Department of Agriculture

15.20-16.00: Open discussion and roundtable

----- End of the event-----

